The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1753.3 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

1753.3. (a) The Chief Deputy Secretary of the Division of Juvenile Justice may enter into an agreement with a city, county, or city and county, to permit transfer of wards, including parole violators, in the custody of the Division of Juvenile Justice to an appropriate facility of the city, county, or city and county, if the official having jurisdiction over the facility has consented. The agreement shall provide for contributions to the city, county, or city and county toward payment of costs incurred with reference to the transferred wards or parole violators.

(b) On or before ~~January~~ February 1, 2007, the Chief Deputy Secretary of the Division of Juvenile Justice shall conclude an agreement with one or more counties, ~~including which may include~~ a city and county, to provide services for technical parole violators, including services in a custodial setting or facility operated by the ~~city, county, county~~ or city and county as an alternative to the recommitment of technical parole violators to an institution operated by the division. The agreement shall include all of the following provisions:

(1) A definition of the members of the parole violator service class, by offense characteristics, and by county or region of residence while on parole, who are eligible for referral to the local or program facility in lieu of return to a state institution operated by the division.

(2) A requirement that all technical parole violators in the defined violator service class be referred to the contract facility or program for an initial technical parole violation, in lieu of direct recommitment to an institution operated by the division, unless the contract facility or program is unable to accept the referral or unless there are extraordinary and documented public safety reasons which, in the opinion of the chief deputy secretary, necessitate a direct return of the violator to an institution operated by the division.

(3) Criteria for the acceptance or rejection of the referral by the director of the local facility or program, including criteria for returning parolees who fail the local program to an institution operated by the division.

(4) A description of the parole violator program to be provided by the ~~contract facility~~ county or city and county, including the basic services to be offered, the proposed length of confinement in the ~~facility~~ any local facility or program, and the linkages to community reentry programs or services that may facilitate successful reentry upon release of the violator from ~~the a contract facility or program~~.

(5) Provisions for the coordination of state and local parole and probation personnel in the case management of parolees during their terms of custody in the contract facility or program.

(6) Terms of payment or contributions by the division toward the costs incurred by the local program or facility for the custody and care of technical parole violators.

(c) For purposes of this section, a technical parole violator means a parolee of the Division of Juvenile Justice who has been found to have committed a violation of his or her conditions of parole that does not constitute or will not be prosecuted as a new criminal offense.

(d) Wards transferred to local programs or facilities under an agreement described in this section are subject to the rules and regulations of the ~~facility in which they are confined~~ local program or facility, but remain under the legal custody of the Division of Juvenile Justice.
